

Privacy Policy for Rewire

Last updated: [DATE]

This Privacy Policy explains how Rewire ("Rewire", "we", "us", or "our") collects, uses, stores, shares, and protects personal information when you use our mobile application, website, products, and related services together referred to as the "Service".

Rewire is designed to help users build healthier habits, reduce or stop pornography use, track personal progress, and improve self-control and wellbeing. Because the Service may involve sensitive personal information, we take privacy seriously and aim to collect only what is necessary to provide and improve the Service.

Please read this Privacy Policy carefully before using Rewire. By using the Service, you acknowledge that you have read and understood this Privacy Policy.

1. Who We Are

The controller of your personal information is:

App name: Rewire

Developer / business name: [LEGAL NAME OR COMPANY NAME]

Business address: [BUSINESS ADDRESS, IF APPLICABLE]

Contact email: [PRIVACY CONTACT EMAIL]

Website: [WEBSITE URL]

If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy or how we handle your personal information, contact us at:

[PRIVACY CONTACT EMAIL]

2. Important Privacy Notice About Sensitive Data

Rewire may allow you to voluntarily record information about your pornography use, urges, relapse events, triggers, streaks, habits, mood, journal entries, goals, and recovery progress.

This information may reveal or relate to your health, sex life, sexual behaviour, mental wellbeing, religious or personal beliefs, or other sensitive aspects of your private life. We treat this information as highly sensitive.

We only collect this type of information when you choose to provide it or when it is necessary for the features you choose to use. You should not enter information into Rewire that you do not want processed by the Service.

You are responsible for the information you choose to add to the app. Please avoid entering unnecessary highly personal details, names of other people, explicit descriptions, illegal content, or information that you do not want stored.

3. Age Requirement

Rewire is intended for users who are 18 years old or older.

You must not use Rewire if you are under 18. By creating an account or using the Service, you confirm that you are at least 18 years old.

We do not knowingly collect personal information from children or users under 18. If we become aware that a person under 18 has provided personal information to us, we may delete the account and associated information.

If you believe that a person under 18 has provided personal information to Rewire, please contact us at [PRIVACY CONTACT EMAIL].

4. Rewire Is Not a Medical or Emergency Service

Rewire is a self-improvement and habit-tracking app. Rewire does not provide medical advice, therapy, diagnosis, counselling, crisis support, or emergency services.

The information in the app is provided for general self-improvement and educational purposes only. It is not a substitute for advice from a doctor, therapist, counsellor, psychologist, psychiatrist, or other qualified professional.

If you are experiencing a medical emergency, mental health crisis, risk of self-harm, suicidal thoughts, or immediate danger, contact emergency services or a qualified crisis support service immediately.

5. Information We Collect

We may collect the following categories of information depending on how you use Rewire.

5.1 Account Information

When you create an account, we may collect:

- Name or username;
- Email address;
- Password or authentication information;
- User ID;
- Login method;
- Account creation date;
- Account settings;
- Profile preferences.

If you sign in using a third-party provider, such as Apple, Google, or another authentication provider, we may receive information that provider makes available to us, such as your email address or unique user ID.

We do not receive your Apple, Google, or third-party account password.

5.2 Progress, Habit, and Recovery Data

When you use Rewire, you may provide or generate information such as:

- Clean streaks;
- Relapse or reset logs;
- Urge logs;
- Trigger logs;
- Check-ins;
- Goals;
- Milestones;
- Achievements;
- App progress;
- Daily tasks;
- Personal reflections;
- Journal entries;
- Mood or motivation notes;
- Habit history;
- Recovery statistics;
- Accountability preferences;
- Content or exercises completed in the app.

Some of this information may be sensitive. We process it only to provide the app features, help you track progress, personalise your experience, maintain your account, and improve the Service where permitted.

5.3 Sensitive Wellbeing and Sexual Behaviour Information

Depending on how you use the Service, Rewire may process information that could reveal or relate to:

- Pornography use;
- Attempts to reduce or stop pornography use;
- Sexual behaviour or sexual habits;
- Urges or cravings;
- Relapse history;
- Emotional wellbeing;
- Mental wellbeing;
- Addiction-related or compulsive behaviour patterns;
- Personal triggers;
- Religious or personal motivations if you choose to enter them.

We do not require you to provide unnecessary sensitive details. Where we rely on your consent to process sensitive information, you may withdraw that consent at any time, but this may affect your ability to use certain features.

5.4 Device, App, and Technical Information

We may automatically collect technical information, including:

- Device type;
- Operating system;

- App version;
- Device language;
- General region or country;
- IP address;
- Device identifiers;
- Crash logs;
- Diagnostics;
- Performance data;
- Error reports;
- Security logs;
- Date and time of app activity;
- Feature usage information.

We use this information to operate, secure, debug, maintain, and improve the Service.

5.5 Payment and Subscription Information

If Rewire offers paid features, subscriptions, or in-app purchases, payments may be processed by Apple App Store, Google Play, Stripe, RevenueCat, or another payment provider.

We may receive limited payment-related information, such as:

- Purchase status;
- Subscription status;
- Product purchased;
- Renewal status;
- Transaction ID;
- App store receipt information;
- Refund status;
- Approximate purchase date.

We do not collect or store your full debit card, credit card, Apple Pay, Google Pay, or bank details unless expressly stated. Payment providers process payment information under their own terms and privacy policies.

5.6 Notifications

If you choose to enable notifications, we may collect and use:

- Push notification token;
- Notification preferences;
- Reminder settings;
- Time zone;
- Device notification status.

You can disable notifications in your device settings or within the app where available.

5.7 Support and Communications

If you contact us, we may collect:

- Name;

- Email address;
- Message content;
- Screenshots or files you provide;
- Support history;
- Technical information needed to resolve your issue.

Please do not send us highly sensitive information unless necessary.

5.8 Analytics and Product Improvement Data

We may collect limited analytics data to understand how users interact with the app, fix bugs, improve features, and measure performance.

Where possible, we use aggregated or de-identified analytics. We do not use sensitive recovery data for advertising or third-party targeted marketing.

Analytics may include:

- App screens viewed;
- Buttons tapped;
- Session length;
- Feature usage;
- Crash data;
- Device type;
- App version;
- General location such as country or region.

6. Information We Do Not Intentionally Collect

Unless we clearly tell you otherwise, Rewire does not intentionally collect:

- Full payment card details;
- Government identification numbers;
- Precise GPS location;
- Contacts;
- Photos or videos from your device;
- Microphone recordings;
- Camera access;
- Browser history outside the app;
- The content of other apps on your device;
- Pornographic images, videos, or explicit media files.

If the app ever requests access to sensitive device permissions, we will only do so where necessary for a specific feature and with your permission.

7. How We Use Your Information

We may use your information for the following purposes:

7.1 To Provide the Service

We use your information to:

- Create and manage your account;
- Let you log in securely;
- Track your streaks, goals, progress, and achievements;
- Save your app settings;
- Provide habit-tracking and recovery features;
- Personalise your experience;
- Sync your data across devices;
- Restore your account;
- Provide customer support.

7.2 To Protect and Secure the Service

We use information to:

- Prevent unauthorised access;
- Detect abuse, fraud, spam, or misuse;
- Protect user accounts;
- Debug errors;
- Monitor app stability;
- Enforce our Terms of Service;
- Protect the rights, safety, and security of users, Rewire, and others.

7.3 To Improve Rewire

We use information to:

- Understand which features are useful;
- Improve app design and performance;
- Fix bugs;
- Develop new features;
- Improve onboarding;
- Improve educational content;
- Measure app reliability.

Where possible, we use aggregated, anonymised, or de-identified information for improvement.

7.4 To Process Payments

If you purchase paid features, we use payment-related information to:

- Confirm purchases;
- Manage subscriptions;
- Provide premium features;
- Process refunds where applicable;
- Prevent payment abuse;
- Comply with app store or payment provider requirements.

7.5 To Communicate With You

We may use your contact details to:

- Respond to support requests;
- Send account-related messages;
- Send security notices;
- Send product updates;
- Send important legal notices;
- Send marketing messages where permitted and where you have not opted out.

You can unsubscribe from marketing emails using the unsubscribe link or by contacting us.

7.6 To Comply With Law

We may use your information where necessary to:

- Comply with legal obligations;
- Respond to lawful requests;
- Enforce our legal rights;
- Keep required records;
- Resolve disputes;
- Prevent harm or unlawful activity.

8. Lawful Bases for Processing

Where UK GDPR or EU GDPR applies, we rely on one or more lawful bases depending on the type of information and purpose.

8.1 Contract

We process certain information because it is necessary to provide the Service you request, including account creation, login, progress tracking, app functionality, subscriptions, and support.

8.2 Consent

We rely on consent where required, including for optional features, certain notifications, certain analytics, marketing communications, and processing that requires consent by law.

You can withdraw consent where applicable. Withdrawing consent does not affect processing that happened before withdrawal.

8.3 Explicit Consent for Sensitive Information

Where the information you provide reveals or relates to sensitive categories such as health, sex life, sexual behaviour, or mental wellbeing, we may rely on your explicit consent to process that information for the purpose of providing Rewire's habit-tracking, recovery, and wellbeing features.

You may withdraw explicit consent at any time by deleting your sensitive entries, deleting your account, disabling relevant features where available, or contacting us.

If you withdraw explicit consent, some features may no longer work properly.

8.4 Legitimate Interests

We may process certain information where necessary for our legitimate interests, provided those interests are not overridden by your rights and freedoms.

Our legitimate interests may include:

- Keeping the Service secure;
- Preventing fraud and abuse;
- Improving app performance;
- Debugging;
- Understanding non-sensitive app usage;
- Responding to support requests;
- Protecting our legal rights.

We do not rely on legitimate interests to use your sensitive recovery information for advertising.

8.5 Legal Obligation

We may process information where required to comply with laws, regulations, court orders, tax obligations, accounting requirements, or lawful authority requests.

8.6 Vital Interests

In rare circumstances, we may process or disclose information where necessary to protect someone's life or physical safety.

9. How We Share Information

We do not sell your personal information.

We may share information only in the following limited circumstances.

9.1 Service Providers

We may share information with trusted service providers who help us operate the Service, such as:

- Cloud hosting providers;
- Database providers;
- Authentication providers;
- Analytics providers;
- Crash reporting providers;
- Customer support tools;
- Email delivery providers;
- Push notification providers;
- Payment and subscription providers;
- App store platforms;
- Security and fraud prevention providers.

These providers are only authorised to process information as needed to provide services to us and must protect the information they process.

9.2 App Stores and Payment Providers

If you purchase a subscription or in-app purchase, Apple, Google, Stripe, RevenueCat, or another provider may process payment and subscription information. Their use of your information is governed by their own privacy policies.

9.3 Legal and Safety Reasons

We may disclose information if we believe it is reasonably necessary to:

- Comply with law;
- Respond to lawful legal requests;
- Protect our rights, users, or others;
- Investigate fraud or abuse;
- Enforce our Terms;
- Prevent harm;
- Protect the security of the Service.

9.4 Business Transfers

If we are involved in a merger, acquisition, financing, reorganisation, sale of assets, or similar transaction, your information may be transferred as part of that transaction.

If this happens, we will take reasonable steps to ensure your information remains protected.

9.5 With Your Direction or Consent

We may share information where you ask us to do so or give us permission.

For example, if Rewire later offers accountability partner features, coach features, community features, or export features, information may be shared according to your settings and choices.

10. What We Do Not Do With Sensitive Recovery Data

Unless we clearly explain otherwise and obtain any required consent, we do not:

- Sell sensitive recovery data;
- Use sensitive recovery data for third-party targeted advertising;
- Share relapse logs with advertisers;
- Share journal entries with advertisers;
- Publicly display your private recovery data;
- Access your private entries manually except where necessary for support, safety, security, legal compliance, or debugging;
- Use your private recovery data to make legal, financial, employment, credit, insurance, or similarly significant decisions about you.

11. Advertising and Marketing

If Rewire uses advertising, we will disclose this clearly.

We do not use sensitive recovery information, pornography-related logs, relapse logs, urge logs, or journal entries to target advertising.

If we use advertising partners, they may process certain device or usage information according to their own policies and applicable law. Where required, we will ask for your consent before using advertising identifiers or tracking technologies.

You may be able to limit ad tracking through your device settings.

12. Cookies, SDKs, and Similar Technologies

The Service may use cookies, software development kits, local storage, device identifiers, and similar technologies to:

- Keep you logged in;
- Save preferences;
- Enable app functionality;
- Analyse app performance;
- Detect crashes;
- Prevent abuse;
- Support payments;
- Improve the Service.

Third-party SDKs may collect information according to their own privacy practices. We aim to use reputable providers and minimise unnecessary data collection.

Before launch, we will review the SDKs used in Rewire and ensure our app store privacy disclosures match our actual data practices.

13. Data Storage and Security

We use reasonable technical and organisational measures designed to protect personal information, including sensitive information.

These measures may include:

- Encryption in transit;
- Secure cloud storage;
- Access controls;
- Authentication safeguards;
- Database permissions;
- Monitoring and logging;
- Limited internal access;
- Backups;
- Security reviews;
- Least-privilege access where practical.

However, no app, website, database, or internet transmission can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. You use the Service at your own risk.

You are responsible for keeping your account credentials secure. Do not share your password or login details with anyone.

14. Data Retention

We keep personal information only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, including to provide the Service, maintain your account, comply with law, resolve disputes, enforce agreements, and protect the Service.

Retention periods may vary depending on the type of information.

14.1 Account Data

We keep account information while your account is active.

If you delete your account, we will delete or anonymise account information within a reasonable period, unless we need to retain certain information for legal, security, fraud prevention, payment, tax, accounting, dispute, or legitimate business reasons.

14.2 Recovery and Progress Data

Your streaks, logs, goals, journal entries, check-ins, and progress data are kept while your account is active so the app can function.

If you delete specific entries, we will delete or anonymise them within a reasonable period, subject to backup, technical, legal, or security limitations.

If you delete your account, we will delete or anonymise your recovery and progress data within a reasonable period, unless retention is necessary for legal or security reasons.

14.3 Backups

Deleted information may remain in encrypted backups for a limited time before being overwritten or deleted according to our backup schedule.

Backup data is not normally accessed except for disaster recovery, security, or technical reasons.

14.4 Support Messages

Support emails and messages may be kept for as long as needed to handle your request, maintain business records, resolve disputes, improve support, and comply with legal obligations.

14.5 Analytics and Diagnostic Data

Analytics and diagnostic data may be retained in aggregated, anonymised, or de-identified form for product improvement and security purposes.

15. Account and Data Deletion

You may request deletion of your account and associated personal information by:

- Using the in-app account deletion feature, if available;
- Visiting: [ACCOUNT DELETION URL];
- Contacting us at: [PRIVACY CONTACT EMAIL].

When you request account deletion, we will take reasonable steps to delete or anonymise your personal information, subject to legal, security, technical, payment, accounting, and fraud prevention exceptions.

If you purchased a subscription through Apple or Google, deleting your Rewire account may not automatically cancel your app store subscription. You may need to cancel the subscription through your Apple App Store or Google Play account settings.

16. Your Privacy Rights

Depending on where you live, you may have rights over your personal information.

These rights may include the right to:

- Access your personal information;
- Correct inaccurate information;
- Delete your information;
- Restrict processing;
- Object to processing;
- Withdraw consent;
- Withdraw explicit consent for sensitive information;
- Receive a copy of your information;
- Request portability of your information;
- Complain to a data protection authority.

To exercise your rights, contact us at [PRIVACY CONTACT EMAIL].

We may need to verify your identity before responding to your request.

We will respond within the timeframe required by applicable law.

17. UK and EEA Users

If you are in the United Kingdom or European Economic Area, you may have rights under UK GDPR or EU GDPR.

Where applicable, you may also complain to your local data protection authority.

If you are in the UK, you may contact the Information Commissioner's Office.

We encourage you to contact us first so we can try to resolve your concern.

18. International Transfers

We may process and store information in countries other than your own. These countries may have data protection laws that differ from the laws where you live.

Where required, we use appropriate safeguards for international transfers, such as contracts, transfer mechanisms, and security measures designed to protect your information.

19. Automated Processing and Personalisation

Rewire may use your app activity and progress data to personalise your experience, such as showing relevant reminders, milestones, motivational content, achievements, or suggested exercises.

We do not use automated processing to make legal, employment, credit, insurance, financial, or similarly significant decisions about you.

20. Community, Sharing, and Accountability Features

If Rewire offers community, accountability partner, coach, group, leaderboard, or social features, you should use them carefully.

Information you choose to share may be visible to other users or selected people according to the feature and your settings.

Do not share highly sensitive information publicly. Do not share personal information about other people without permission.

We are not responsible for how other users use information that you choose to share with them.

21. User Content

You may be able to create or upload content such as journal entries, notes, goals, check-ins, reflections, or support messages.

You retain responsibility for the content you provide.

You must not submit:

- Illegal content;
- Explicit images or videos;
- Content involving minors;
- Threats or harassment;
- Personal information about other people without permission;
- Content that violates our Terms or applicable law.

We may remove content or suspend accounts where necessary to protect users, comply with law, or enforce our Terms.

22. Third-Party Links and Services

The Service may contain links to third-party websites, content, resources, app stores, payment processors, or services.

We are not responsible for the privacy practices of third parties. You should review their privacy policies before using them.

23. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time.

If we make material changes, we may notify you through the app, by email, or by other reasonable means.

The updated Privacy Policy will be effective when posted unless stated otherwise.

Your continued use of the Service after an updated Privacy Policy becomes effective means you acknowledge the updated policy.

24. Contact Us
